REVISION OF REGULATIONS

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO EMPLOYEES TO TAKE AFFIDAVITS, ADMINISTER OATHS, ETC.; FORM 4505 REV.

[Title III, Public No. 84, 74th Congress.]

9686. (A) An employee to whom authority is delegated by the Administrator in accordance with title III, Public No. 844, 74th Congress, June 29, 1936, is by virtue of such delegated authority empowered to take affidavits, to administer oaths and affirmations, to aid claimants in the preparation and presentation of claims, and to make investigations and examine witnesses upon matters within the jurisdiction of the Veterans' Administration. He is authorized also to certify to the correctness of all papers and documents pertaining to the administration of laws relating to the Veterans' Administration. Such employee, however, is not authorized to administer oaths in connection with the execution of affidavits relative to fiscal vouchers and is not authorized to take acknowledgments to policy loan agreements and applications for cash surrender value of U. S. Government life insurance.

(B) Any oath, affirmation, affidavit, or examination, when certified under the hand of any such employee by whom it was administered or taken, as provided in subparagraph (A) hereof, and when authenticated by the seal of the Veterans' Administration, as provided by R. & P. 6, may be offered or used in any court of the United States, and without further proof of the identity or authority of such employee shall have like force and effect as if administered or taken before a clerk of such court. (August 2, 1937.)

9687. The delegated authority from the Administrator to an employee will be evidenced by Form 4505 Rev., issued over the signature of the Administrator and countersigned by the chief of personnel. When it is desired to have an employee so designated, the administrative head in central office, or the manager under whom the employee is assigned, will make recommendation to the chief of personnel, central office. (August 2, 1937.)

9688. A record of Forms 4505 Rev., which are issued, will be kept by the personnel division, showing the name of the employee, the date of issue, and the official station, if in the field, or the service or division, if in central office. This record also will show cancellations of Forms 4505 Rev. (August 2, 1937.)

9689. When an employee to whom Form 4505 Rev. has been issued, leaves the service, or his duties are modified so as to make unnecessary his authority to take affidavits, etc., his delegated authority is terminated thereupon and the official under whom the employee is assigned, the administrative head in central office, or the manager of the field station, will be responsible for immediately obtaining it from the employee and immediately returning it for cancellation to the chief of personnel. When an employee to whom Form 4505 Rev. has been issued is transferred within the Veterans Administration, the personnel division will notify the administrative head in central office or the manager of the field station of such fact, who will determine whether or not Form 4505 Rev. is necessary in the performance of the employee's new duties, and will advise the chief of personnel.
